

INTRO TO BARITONE

Course 1 // Lesson 1

Notes + Assignment

- 1. If you have a mirror handy, place yourself in front of it and set your playing position. Whether you're just starting out or have been playing for years, having good playing posture will put you in the best position to improve as a baritone player.
- 2. Now, ask yourself the following: Does the baritone feel comfortable in my hands? Does the baritone feel secure up against my body? Is the arm of my fretting hand able to freely move up and down the neck?
- 3. If you find yourself struggling to get into a comfortable playing position, may I suggest using a ukulele strap. This will help keep the baritone secured while you play.
- 4. Assignment:* Build your vocabulary by learning and identifying the components of the baritone. See quiz PDF.
